Background

International Women's Day is observed on March 8 every year. It is a day earmarked to raise awareness about women's rights, the right to abortion, gender equality, and the right to education. It is a day when women are recognized for their achievements without regard to divisions, whether national, ethnic, linguistic, cultural, economic or political. Throughout history, Indian women have played important roles in shaping society and standing up for equal rights. Few examples to state are late Kalpana Chawla, Arundhati Bhattacharya, Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, Mary Kom, show the remarkable progress Indian women are making in science, business, sports, and more. In our workplaces and homes, let's aim to support and encourage one another, making sure that every Indian woman has the chance to reach her full potential.

The theme for International Women's Day 2024 is 'Invest in women: Accelerate progress.'

Objective:

1. Investing in women, a human rights
2. Ending poverty
3. Implementing gender-responsive financing
4. Shifting to a green economy and care society
5. Supporting feminist change-makers

Background

Women's Equality Day, observed annually on August 26th, marks the progress made in the fight for gender equality while also highlighting the ongoing struggles that women continue to face worldwide.

In India, a country known for its cultural diversity and vibrant traditions, the celebration of this day carries a dual significance. While there have been remarkable strides in the empowerment of women, the reality is that deep-rooted societal norms, economic disparities, and systemic challenges still impede true equality.

Objective:

- To raise awareness about women's rights and gender equality.
- To accelerate concrete efforts towards achieving gender parity.
- To inspire individuals, communities, and nations towards the goal of gender equality and women's rights.
- To foster a sense of solidarity and unity among women worldwide.

Summary:

Women's equality day inaugurated with a traditional song followed by a introduction speech by Miss Nisha N M.Pharm student. Dr Menaka.T Women's cell coordinator welcomed the chief guest ,director and other dignitaries on and off the Dias ,followed by the welcome Speech, dignitaries and guest lighted the lamp.

Dr Rajeswari principal mallige college of nursing highlighted the importance of women's equality day. Dr. Mandira Paul introduced the chief guest Dr. Rajamma.

Chief guest Rajamma emphasized on the women's equality should be started from the household and in public. She strongly suggested that mother's attitude towards a girl child in comparison with a boy child should be changed, if they both are equally treated most issues will be resolved in the society.
