The Feedback Process via Google Forms for Mallige College of Pharmacy (MCP) can be classified into the following stages:

A. Feedback Collected

1. Google Form Creation:

- A structured feedback form is designed using Google Forms.
- Includes sections for student, faculty, and stakeholder feedback on academic curriculum, facilities, teaching quality, and overall experience.

2. Circulation & Collection:

- The form link is shared with students, faculty, alumni, and other stakeholders via email, college website, and social media.
- Responses are collected over a designated period.

B. Feedback Analysed

1. Data Compilation:

- Google Forms automatically compiles responses into a Google Sheet.
- Responses are categorized based on parameters such as course content, infrastructure, faculty, etc.

2. Quantitative & Qualitative Analysis:

- Numerical ratings are analysed for trends and patterns.
- Descriptive feedback is reviewed for insights into improvement areas.

3. Report Generation:

- A summary report is prepared, highlighting key observations, suggestions, and concerns.

C. Action Taken

1. Discussion & Decision-Making:

- The feedback report is reviewed by the Academic and Administrative Committees.
- Necessary actions are planned for addressing concerns or implementing suggestions.

2. Implementation:

- Changes may include curriculum revisions, infrastructure improvements, faculty training, or policy modifications.

3. Communication to Stakeholders:

- Relevant actions taken are communicated to students, faculty, and other stakeholders.

D. Feedback Available on Website

1. Transparency & Accessibility:

- The feedback report and action taken summary is published on the MCP official website.
- This ensures stakeholders can view how their input is utilized.

2. Annual Review Updates:

- Feedback is collected and updated periodically, ensuring continuous improvement.

This structured feedback mechanism enhances academic quality, infrastructure, and overall student experience at Mallige College of Pharmacy.
